Army Honors Courage at Millennium Ball

The EUCOM Army Millennium Ball will be held May 13 in the Sindelfingen Stadthalle. Social hour begins at 6 p.m. with dinner following at 7 p.m. The formal event, which features the U.S. Army Europe Chorus, is open to all military members and U.S. government and local national civilian employees in the Stuttgart area, as well as local Association of the United States Army corporate members and Bundeswehr officials.

This year's theme is Courage - The Quality of Mind or Spirit that Enables a Person to Face Difficulty, Danger and Pain. The guest speaker will be retired Army Maj. Gen. Pat Brady, a medal of honor recipient from the Vietnam conflict. Brady was one of the first general officers assigned to the Army Aviation Corps and retired with 34 years of service.

Tickets cost 75 marks for paygrades O-5 or GS-13 and above; 50 marks for E-7 through O-4 and GS-7 through GS-12; 25 marks for E-1 through E-6 and GS-1 through GS-6.

Tickets may be purchased from each EUCOM staff directorate's Army Ball point of contact or from individual unit ticket representatives. Uniform for military and civilian attire for others is formal. For more info contact 430-8430/civ. 0711-680-8430 or e-mail (loomise@eucom.mil).

CINC EUCOM Changes at Ceremony

The CINC EUCOM change of command ceremony will be held May 2 on Husky Field. Secretary of Defense William Cohen and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs Gen. Henry Shelton are scheduled to attend the 12:30 p.m. ceremony

when Air Force Gen. Joseph Raiston assumes command from Army Gen. Wesley Clark. The 1st Infantry Band will provide music during the ceremony while 105 mm howitzers fire a salute and A-10 tank-killer aircraft fly over the field. In case of inclement weather the ceremony will be held in the Patch Barracks Fitness Center. A reception for invited guests will follow the ceremony at the Swabian Special Events Center.

Ceremony Restricts Patch Parking

All parking areas around Husky Field will be closed beginning April 29. The parking area behind the Fitness Center will also be closed. All vehicles not removed from these areas by May 1 will be towed away. Individuals driving on Patch Barracks May 2 can expect traffic delays. The roads around Husky Field will be closed to regular traffic before and during the ceremony May 2. The main gate, as well as Post Exchange and commissary parking lots, will be open throughout the ceremony, as will all facilities. However, parking on post will be severely limited.

All car alarms in vehicles parked on post should be turned off before the full rehearsal at 12:30 p.m. April 28 and before the ceremony at 12:30 p.m. May 2. Both events include aircraft flying at low levels and howitzer firings that may set off car alarms.

Fitness Center Facilities Restricted

The inclement weather site for the EUCOM CINC change of command ceremony May 2, is the Patch Fitness Center. Therefore, basketball and racquetball courts will be closed noon May 1 until 9 p.m. May 2. The entire fitness center will be closed May 2 from 5:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

All gates on Husky Field, except the two immediately across from the fitness center, will be closed and locked April 17. At the same time, all field areas, to include grassy areas, will be off limits for use. The track will remain open until April 25. On April 26 all gates on Husky Field will be closed to public access until completion of the change of command ceremony and clean up of the site.

Husky Field will be available for normal access the morning of May 3. For more info call 430-7136/civ. 0711-680-7136.

Promotion Board Reminder

The sergeant first class centralized promotion board will convene May 31. The mail-out date for packets is May 5. Soldiers requesting to review their records and send their packets to the board after the mail-out date may not be reviewed by the board selection committee.

Eligible soldiers are encouraged to review their records before May 5, avoid the last-minute rush and have their board packet sent to the promotion board in a timely manner. During the final days of records review, the 510th Personnel Services Battalion may be overloaded with appointments.

Walk-in appointments are available Mondays through Wednesdays and Fridays 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m. For more info call Sgt. Brown, 431-2884 or 431-4660.

Range Scheduling Conference

The quarterly range scheduling conference will take place May 9, 10 a.m. in building 2931, installation coordinator's conference room, Panzer Kaserne. Unit representatives must bring their paperwork for their training assessment and range request for the 4th quarter. For more info call Angelika Calvin, 431-2216/civ. 07031-15-216.

European Regimental Signal Ball Held

The European Regimental Signal Ball will be held at the Village Pavilion, Patrick Henry Village, in Heidelberg, June 24. The event celebrates the 140th birthday of the Army Signal Corps. All officers, non-commissioned officers and civilians are invited to attend. For more info contact 1st Lt. Gunst at 430-5356/civ. 0711-680-5356, or e-mail (gunstc@52sigbn.stuttgart.army.mil). You can also visit the Signal Ball Web page for more information at (www.signalball.army.mil).

Army Officer Assignment Info

Army officers with assignment instructions may expect reassignment orders in approximately two weeks after the Personnel Services Battalion receives the request for orders. Members can help to expedite the process by ensuring all personnel info including emergency data is current.

Officers on assignment instructions and without orders may coordinate with the Transportation Management Office by providing the movement designator code from the request for orders. Once orders are produced by Personnel Services Battalion they must be provided to TMO or members may be liable for the cost of the move.

Advance planning and patience can drastically decrease the frustration experienced by both the member and supporting agencies. For more info call Sgt. Martz, 431-2413/civ. 07031-15-413.
